

Finding Fishy Water

Searching for Where to Fly Fish

5 Steps to finding rivers, lakes and streams to Fly Fish

1. Straight Internet Search or Go To Guide Recommended – Best Place to Fly Fish in New Mexico
2. Go to the State Fish and Wildlife and look for stocking and fishing reports – NAIL Down a watershed. Example San Juan River
3. Validate with Amazon – Book chapter titles. If you find a hole chapter written about the river – Validated 🐟!
4. Validate again with Fly Shops and Guides. Highly suggest calling a fly shop.
5. Google Maps – Look for boat launches, trails, riverside parking and campsites.

Guide Secret – Ask yourself, if you were a trout, where would you be? Where you could rest. Where you could eat. Where you wouldn't be eaten. Put these things together and you'll know where the trout are.
